Our Learning

This week, the children have had a busy week learning all about Samuel Pepys and the treasures that he hid in the ground during The Great Fire of London. They have also been writing speech bubbles between Samuel Pepys and his maid. In maths, we have been working hard partitioning two digit numbers. If the children have time at home, it would be really good if they can practise writing their digits the right way round.

Next week, the children are going to be doing more work on our class story 'Vlad and The Great Fire Of London'. The children will then be writing some sentences about what they think Vlad would be able to hear and see during the fire. In maths, we are going to be moving on to looking at tens and ones on a number line then we will be looking at the greater and less than symbols that we use to compare objects and numbers.
