World Book Day

Our Learning

English

.This week the children have explored the features of a diary and they enjoyed reading an extract from the diary of Howard Carter describing the discovery of Tutankhamun's tomb. Using this as an inspiration, they wrote an imaginative diary entry in role as the fisherman's daughter, explaining how she carefully placed the stars in the sky to create beautiful images. Language features included writing in the first person, using time adverbials and addressing the reader.

Maths

This week, our magnificent mathematicians have begun a unit about fractions and they have explored the denominators of unit fractions . They have also compared and ordered non-unit fractions and unit fractions. Next week the children will focus on counting in fractions on a number line.

Science

This week the children have explored why we use reflective materials and how they reflect light. They enjoyed investigating different materials to find the best reflective material to keep people safe on dark mornings or evenings.

Free Time Friday

As one of our Free Time Friday activities , we would like to make sock puppets. If you have any odd socks that you no longer need, please bring them into school for the children to use. Thank you.
