Our Learning

English

This week concluded our reading of the Stone Age Boy. The children discussed the ending and whether it was an ending they would have chosen to write. Having studied this text, the children are now ready to start writing their own story about time travelling back to the stone age.

Maths

This week, the children have continued using their knowledge of place value to explore the world of hundreds, tens and ones. They also investigated the intervals on a number line by using the start point and end point.

Science

The children have investigated properties of stone and learnt how stone was used during the stone age. They have had an opportunity to use their knowledge of stone to create a poster about rocks.

Year 3 wommery

We would like to create a year three wommery to support our science unit. If you have a wommery that we could borrow, please do let us know!
